

Chamber Music America

2024 New Jazz Works Program

Application Deadline:

April 4, 2024

11:59 PM, ET

Notification: June 2024

*A component of the Doris Duke Jazz Ensembles Project,
New Jazz Works is funded by the Doris Duke Foundation.*

About New Jazz Works

- Since 2000, Chamber Music America has commissioned nearly 300 original jazz works.
- The New Jazz Works program provides grants to jazz ensembles based in the U.S., its territories including Puerto Rico, and Indian country to create, perform, and record new jazz works.
- The new work may be composed by the ensemble leader or a member of the ensemble/collective.

Statement of Commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

CMA's Board of Directors has made diversity, inclusion, and equity a primary focus of the organization's work and has adopted the acronym ALAANA (African/Black, Latinx, Asian/South Asian, Arab/Middle Eastern, and Native American) for use in its equity focus.

Eligibility

- Ensembles consisting of 2-10 musicians (including guest artists) may apply to this program.
- The primary contact for the application or the ensemble must have current CMA membership status at the time of applying.
- New Jazz Works funds musical artists only; non-musical artists are not supported by this program.
- An ensemble or composer may be on an application in either CMA's 2024 New Jazz Works program or the 2024 Classical Commissioning program, but not both
- If the ensemble or commissioned composer has a current 2024 commissioning project under a 2024 Artistic Projects grant, they cannot apply.

Ensemble Eligibility

An ensemble is eligible if:

- It is a professional composer-led or collective jazz ensemble (student groups are not eligible).
- It is based in the U.S., its territories or Indian country.
- The leader is a U.S. citizen or permanent resident;
- It includes improvisation as an integral part of composition and performance;
- It has no overdue financial or reporting obligations to CMA or for any CMA grants.

Composer Eligibility

The composer:

- may be either the bandleader or a member of the ensemble/collective
- is an individual, not a group
- must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- must have fulfilled any outstanding obligations from prior CMA grants at the time of application.

The Composition

- Must be of substantial length; this may be one extended work or shorter pieces that together form a larger work.
- Feature improvisation as an integral part of the composition.
- Be written for 2-10 musicians; the total number of musicians including the performing composer and guest artists must not exceed 10.
- Be scored for one musician per part
- Result in a printed score, lead sheet, or other form of graphic notation or nontraditional documentation.

*If the commissioned work will be written as part of a multi-disciplinary project, it must also be a stand-alone work for performance.

The commission may not be:

- previously written works
- works-in-progress
- arrangements
- chamber opera
- incidental music

Additionally, CMA cannot consider applications:

- requesting funding for non-musical artists
- requesting fees for student musicians
- requesting funds for classes or workshops for music students

CMA provides grantees three years from July 1, 2024– June 30, 2027 to complete a New Jazz Works project including:

- Creation of the new work
- World premiere by December 31, 2025
- Two additional public performances or one additional public performance with distribution quality audio/video recording by June 30, 2027

*In-person performances can take place in the U.S. and/or abroad.

2 of the total performances for the grant must be U.S.-based.

What is a public performance?

- A public performance is music played outside a normal circle of friends and family that occurs in any public place that is accessible a gathering of general audiences.
- A public performance also occurs when music is transmitted digital service providers like a live-streamed concert

What are general audiences?

- General audiences are the group of people who have gathered to watch or listen to the event in an accessible public setting.
- Conferences do not count as public events for the purposes of the grant as they are exclusive to a specific audience that is not accessible to the public. (An attendee can't bring a friend, child, etc.)

Panel Review Process

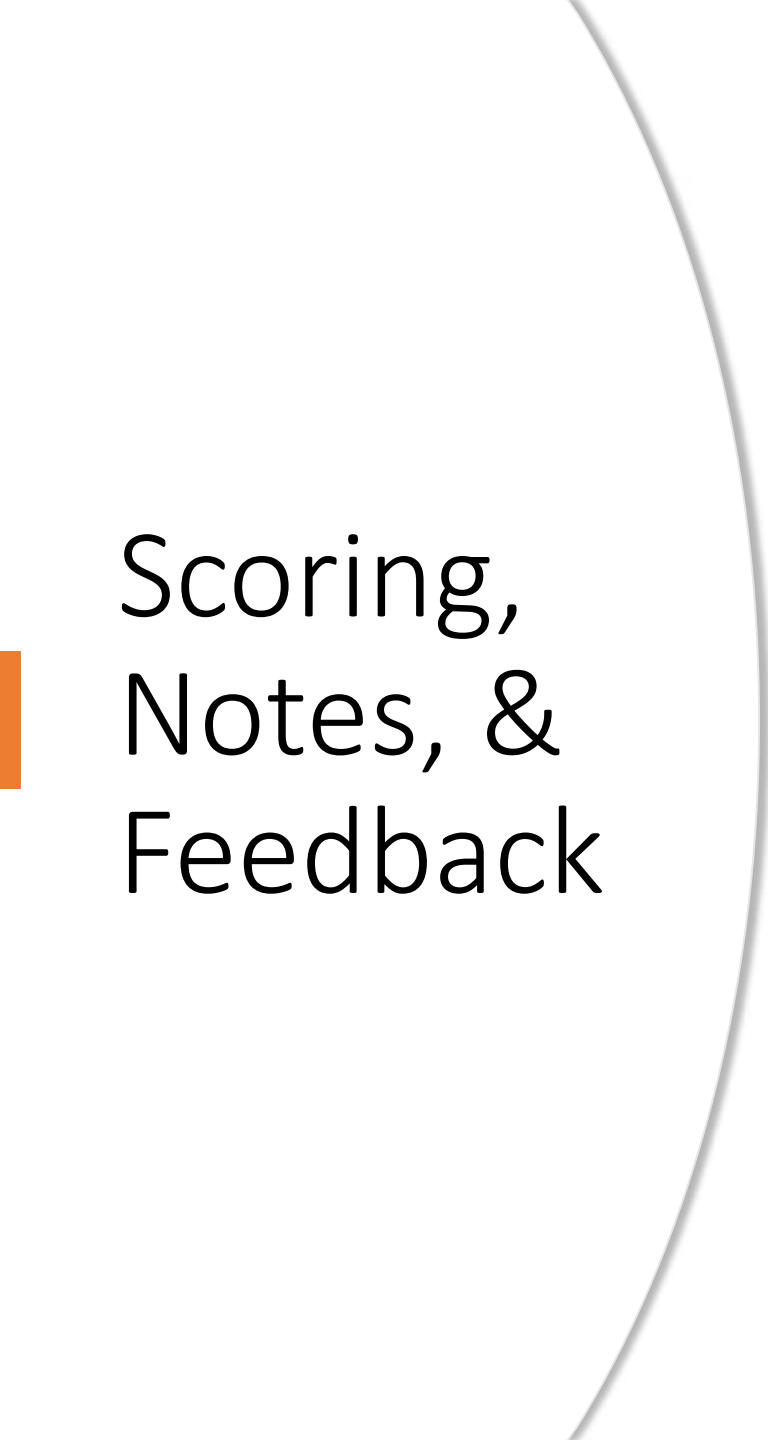

- Applications are reviewed by an independent panel of jazz music professionals; CMA staff and board do not participate in the deliberations.
(Representative list of panelists)
- Panel evaluation takes place through an anonymous listening process
- Applicants will be notified in June.

Panel Review Process

The panel will review:

- Composer audio samples for originality in compositional technique and skill in arranging for jazz ensembles.
- Ensemble audio samples for the technical and artistic strength of individual instrumentalists to understand the composer's arrangement(s).
- Ensemble audio samples for cohesiveness of the ensemble in performing scored and improvised music.

Scoring, Notes, & Feedback

- The panel uses a scoring system of 10 (excellent), 7 (good) 4 (average), 1 (non-competitive)
- Panelists provide notes and feedback
- Panel feedback—scores and notes are provided to applicants after notifications are made by appointment

The written application
